

Wednesday, March 31 1999
Reprinted from www.dressagedaily.com

Kentchurch Chime Dances with Kur Vibes

Joining the exclusive club of dressage "ponyhorses" is Kentchurch Chime, a Welsh Cob stallion owned by Mary Alice Williams, Madoc Farms in Willis, Texas. Gradually building up his career at the FEI levels, "Chime" jumped in two years from Prix St Georges level to Grand Prix. At the 1999 Winter Equestrian Festival in Florida rider

Nancy Hinz placed third in the Grand Prix Freestyle Open with a score of 60.00%. Nancy and Chime danced a dashing Kur performing to the music assembled by Lu Spinks of Video Vibes.

